

SATS APPOINTS JOHN CHAN AS SENIOR VICE PRESIDENT OF CORPORATE BUSINESS PLANNING AND DEVELOPMENT

Singapore, 21 April 2006 – Singapore Airport Terminal Services Limited (“SATS”) today announced the appointment of John Chan Wai Leong as the Senior Vice President of Corporate Business Planning and Development.

In this newly created role, Mr Chan is responsible for corporate planning, investment strategies and policies for international business at SATS. He will also oversee SATS’ overseas businesses and joint venture initiatives. Mr Chan will lead the organisation in developing, structuring and expanding its strategic partnerships. He will also have an oversight of the directions taken by the Boards of the joint venture companies and ensure that they are in line with the strategic business objectives of SATS.

“I would like to extend my warmest welcome to John and am confident that with his in-depth industry knowledge and expertise, he will be able to effectively pursue new growth opportunities for SATS. This appointment at SATS is very timely as the company continues to expand aggressively in fast-growing regions such as China, India, and the Middle East, thereby maintaining our position as the leading integrated airport ground handler and inflight caterer in the Asia Pacific region,” said Mr Ng Chin Hwee, President and CEO of SATS.

Prior to his appointment, Mr Chan was the Executive Director and a member of the Board of Directors of Macau International Airport (“MIA”). He joined MIA in 2003 and was responsible for the marketing, promotion and development of the airport.

Between the years 1995 to 2003, Mr Chan was with the International Air Transport Association as Regional Director, Asia and Pacific, Industry Distribution and Financial Services, where he managed the Passenger and Cargo Agency Programme. Mr Chan have also previously worked with Asiana Airlines in South Korea and Abacus International in Singapore in marketing positions.
